

FACTS ABOUT THE CROUP

THE FIRST SYMPTOMS AND TREATMENT.

Some Interesting Information for Young Mothers--How to Guard Against the Disease.

The great danger from croup is fully realized by most mothers of young children. There are many, however, who do not know that an attack of croup may be prevented by proper treatment as soon as the first symptoms appear. The first indication of an attack of croup is hoarseness. The child becomes quite hoarse; this is followed by a rough cough that has something of a metallic sound and has been compared to the crowing of a cock. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to the printed directions with each bottle as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, and it will prevent the attack. It is, in fact, a certain cure for croup, and has never been known to fail, but it is better and safer to give the remedy before the attack of croup is fully developed. It then saves suffering for the child and anxiety for its parents. There is no danger in giving this remedy freely, as it contains no opium or other narcotic. It is the standard and sole reliance in many thousands of homes and never disappoints those who depend upon it. There are women who took this remedy in childhood, now giving it to their grandchildren, and with the same uniform success. It always cures and is pleasant to take.

O. W. Lefler and C. H. McHenry have bought the waterworks at Farmington, San Juan county.

It Saved His Leg.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swanson, Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at all druggists.

R. Q. Soper has sold his homestead, three miles west of Estancia, to M. G. Averill, for $1,800.

THE MASTER MIND TO COME TO LAS VEGAS

The southern question in its realities, as viewed by one who has no direct interest, but who is familiar enough with its conditions to take them at their true value, is the subject of Alfred Allen's great play, "The Master Power," which will be seen in this city on April 1 before going east to commence a New York engagement.

Mr. Allen's remarkable summing up was last year voted by the metropolitan press to be the finest document on the subject yet written. He writes of these conditions without the personal animus of the southerner, and yet without the cold, calculating prejudice of the northern man. Briefly, the subject matter of his play—which won the thousand-dollar prize offered by Town Topics a year ago—concerns the relations of negroes and whites as affected by the liberty of the negro, and his status as a very influential voting factor in the community.

Mr. Allen takes a typical southern family, genteel and refined—the family of Judge Claire—and proceeds to recite, in remorselessly orderly fashion, the story of that which happened to them, which may happen to any other southern family at any day.

To do this he introduces the characters of the south, just as they are; we see the terribly dominant figure of the negro, Saul Carleton, "state representative," indeed, yet without any education and with all the primitive passions of a savage; the elderly Judge Claire, a southern gentleman, with his invalid and entirely dependent wife; his ill-like daughter, Grace; Arthur Gordon, a young southerner of refinement and breeding; Dr. Ainslee, a bluff northerner; and Dole, most sinister figure of all, with her fatal crossing of black blood and genteel white, possessed of ambitions that can never be realized, and hopes destined only to canker and destroy.

The author makes a very fine distinction between the kindly, affectionate negro of other days, and as he is still to be found, in many instances, and the domineering, dangerous, lazy type of no intelligence who is responsible for all the evil negroes have done not only to their white associates, but indirectly to their own people as well.

Eschews Politics.

For the first time in twelve years, W. E. Gortner, court stenographer of this district, and who lives at Las Vegas, missed the whole legislative session and was not in Santa Fe during the term. Mr. Gortner is not a politician, but is "near" to all that happens in political circles and has a wide knowledge of politics and the men that make them in New Mexico. Gortner seeks nothing politically, but if he did—well, his many friends would make short work of it for him. —Raton Range.

Reward for Accused Man.

A reward of $500 has been offered for the arrest and conviction of Bay Gordon, recently of Rye, Colo., who is charged with the murder of A. Dieter of that place.

Gordon is 23 years old, six feet tall, weighs between 150 and 160 pounds, slender, light blue-gray eyes, has brown hair and is smooth shaven. He is a good cowpuncher and the authorities believe that he may be on some New Mexico cattle ranch.

The Alaska-Yukon Pacific exposition is the first world's fair which has caused no financial assistance of the government. Uncle Sam is spending $200,000, but is doing it himself on his own exhibits and buildings.

WILLIAMS' KIDNEY PILLS.

All the Gold IN GEORGIA Could not Buy.

Reading, Ga. August 27, 1908. Messrs. E. C. DeWitt & Co. Chicago, Ill.

Dear Sirs:—In 1907 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. Some physicians told me it was Dyspepsia, some Consumption of the Lungs, others said Consumption of the Bowels. The symptoms said I would not live until Spring, and for four long years, I existed on a little boiled milk, soda biscuits, doctors' prescriptions and Opereps, remedies that flooded the market. I could not digest anything I ate, and in the Spring 1902 I picked up one of your Almanacs and a poor emaciated Dyspepsia wrote will grow at anything, and that Almanac happened to be my life savor. I bought a five-cent bottle of KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE and the benefit I received from that bottle ALL THE GOLD IN GEORGIA COULD NOT BUY. I kept on taking it and in two months I was back to my work, as a machinist, and in three months I was well and hearty. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic.

May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly,

G. L. CORNELL.

A Religious Author's Statement.

Rev. Joseph H. Fesperman, Salisbury, N. C., who is the author of several books, writes: "For several years was afflicted with kidney trouble and, last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a white thick sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy." O. G.
